Holiday Food Truck Festival Brings Five Full Days of Holiday Cheer to Balboa Park December 26–30, 12:00pm–7:00pm

SAN DIEGO — December 4, 2019 — San Diego residents and out-of-town visitors have the perfect excuse to extend their holiday celebrations at Balboa Park’s annual Holiday Food Truck Festival. For five days between Christmas and New Year’s Day (December 26–30), the Balboa Park Conservancy is hosting free live entertainment under the Plaza de Panama’s dazzling holiday light display along with activities for families. More than a dozen gourmet food trucks are serving up a diverse selection of gourmet dishes and desserts, and select museums are presenting their own brand of holiday-themed fun.

Food trucks open for business at 12 noon each day, with the first set of live performances beginning shortly thereafter (see schedule below). From 4:00pm to 7:00pm, a different musical group performs in the Plaza de Panama. This year’s featured evening bands are Carmen Murray Jazz Trio (12/26), Finnegan Blue (12/27), Theo and the Zydeco Patrol (12/28), Sue Palmer (12/29), and the Bayou Brothers (12/30).

The Holiday Food Truck Festival is also a great time to visit Balboa Park’s many cultural attractions. The adjacent San Diego Museum of Art is keeping its doors open until 7:00pm on December 26 and 28–30, and until 8:00pm on December 27 with special $5 admission, 5:00pm–8:00pm (Friday only). The Fleet Science Center and its Craveology café hours are 10:00am to 6:00pm during the festival (until 9:00pm on December 28–29).
